South-Rasmussen Vows Read in Chapel Rites

In a traditional wedding gown of Chantilly lace, designed and made by her mother, Miss Marsha South, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall South, 22230 Meyer St., Torrance, walked down the aisle of the Bethany Chapel in Long Beach on the arm of her father, to exchange marriage vows with David Rasmussen on Feb. 20. Parents of the bridegroom are Rev. and Mrs. Albin Rasmussen of Stockton, Calif.

The wedding gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, square scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt was caught at the back and draped into a six foot train of Chantilly ruffles. A pearl princess tiara held the silk illusion bridal veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white camellias and stephanotis.

Miss Yvonne Friedly, as maid of honor, wore blue chiffon and carried dark pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Misses Toni Landers, Sheila Bainer, Barbara Mazzola, Jackie Bixby and Carolyn Kromis. They wore floor-length American Beauty chiffon gowns and carried pink carnations.

Vivian South, in blue chiffon, was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Stephen Schock.

Paul Rasmussen served as best man and ushers were Glen Evans, Jerry Lenning, Gordon Gunderson, James Rasmussen and Jerry Linfoot.

Rev. David Schock officiated at the candlelight marriage ceremony. Miss Lavina Watson and Mr. Howard Juhl were soloists.

The 275 guests greeted the newlyweds at a reception at the church where Miss Janice Rasmussen was in charge of the bride's book.

The bridal couple spent a honeymoon at Grand Canyon, Zion National Park and Las Vegas. They are now at home in Long Beach.

Committee Plans Future Programs

Irish Friends Stage Benefit Dance Friday

An Irish jig and a bit of blarney will set the mood for those attending a benefit dance given for the Southwest Association for Retarded Children by a group of interested friends of Irish descent on Friday evening, March 19, at the Redondo Eagles Hall, 128 S. Catalina Ave. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. and continue until 1 a.m.

Prizes of all shapes and sizes will be given away during the evening, plus a 19-inch portable television as the major door prize.

Chairman for the decorations committee is Mrs. Robert Freeland of Rolling Hills. Assisting her are Meses. Leroy Forsythe, William Adams, Clarence Shanklin, Lorraine McCann, Torrance; and Marion Hodson of Redondo Beach.

Moving ahead with ticket sales and programming are Ed Day of Manhattan Beach; Clare Beck, president of the Redondo Beach Eagles; George Barnes and Howard Butler of Torrance.

"There will be entertainment by several well-known television and motion picture personalities including Polynesian dancers Kalua (Pat Wallace of Inglewood) and Momelani (Cabelle Riley of Redondo Beach)," said George Barnes dance coordinator. "Master of ceremonies will be William Everett, past exalted ruler of the Redondo Beach Elks Lodge 1378. Our dance band will offer selection geared to the tastes of all age groups."

Tickets will be available at the door or may be secured in advance by calling Mrs. Orville Markles.

The public is invited to attend.

Entertains
